

*E*ducation

*A*ssistance

September 22, 2004

Due to budget constraints, funding is not available this year for the Education Assistance Program.

Please contact your departmental representatives about other professional development programs that are still available.

(Mentor Program, SLI Workshops, etc.)

Human Resources is optimistic that as the City's financial outlook improves, funding for this valuable program will again become available.